MEMO ENDORSED

Re: U.S. v. Rodney Robinson 19 CR 690-KPF

Dear Judge Failla:

I represent Rodney Robinson in the above-referenced matter. I am writing to request a one-month adjournment of Mr. Robinson's sentencing, which is currently scheduled for May 13, 2022. This is the first request for an adjournment of Mr. Robinson's sentencing. The government consents to this request.

The reason for the request is that Mr. Robinson's presentence interview was delayed because of COVID-related restrictions and, consequently, his final Presentence Report has not yet been docketed. Even if the final report were docketed this evening or early next week, I would not be able to review it with Mr. Robinson at the Westchester County Jail before the defense's sentencing submission is due because of my commitments in other cases. Accordingly, I am requesting a one-month adjournment of Mr. Robinson's sentencing to ensure that he can review the final PSR with me and we can discuss any potential objections to the final PSR.

I respectfully advise the Court that I currently have in-person appearances scheduled in EDNY on June 7, 2022 at 12:30 pm and in SDNY on the afternoon of June 10, 2022.

Respectfully,

Zachary S. Taylor
